This Temple is dedicated to all the Brothers who have given unstintingly and unselfishly of their time and money to its fruition. Especially, it is dedicated to the Brothers whose accomplishments are written upon the Tablets of Love and Memory. Let us not forget the faithful wives and other family members who have helped to erect this edifice for future generations to enjoy. Many of these achievements could not have been made without the devotion and labor of the Ladies of Elks. We salute you who have made it possible for us to have these excellent facilities that shall enable us to continue the great benevolent works of our Order.

My Brothers:

I am honored to be your Exalted Ruler at the dedication of our new lodge temple. This lodge in honor of Elkdon is by far one of the greatest moments in the history of the Hillsboro Elks lodge.

May the dedication of this lodge help us to grow with the principles of our order: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity.

I personally want to thank each and every Brother who has worked so hard to make this lodge a reality. There are too many to name so I won't even try. We can all thank the Building and Finance Committees for the endless hours they have spent to make this dream a reality.

This beautiful lodge, which I feel is one of the finest that has been built with family participation in mind, "A family that works together, stays together." If we continue to function in the spirit of true Elkdon, "One who loves his fellow man," we shall certainly continue to be a pillar in the advancement of good in our community.

Fraternally,

Dale Smoole

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF HILLSBORO LODGE NO. 1862

My Brothers and Ladies,

It is indeed a pleasure for me to commend you for acquiring your new Lodge home. Whenever a lodge takes that major step forward it is because dedicated Elks and their families are willing to make it happen. At such times as I have been able to attend the Dedication of a Lodge, it has given me an emotional lift, because I know how much sincere effort has gone into it as a project.

I wish you many happy years in your new facilities, bearing ever in mind that you can now better serve your community and that "Charity...Cornerstone of Elksdom" is more than just a motto, it is a way of life.

With warm regards, I remain,

Sincerely & Fraternally

To my Brothers of Hillboro Lodge:

After all the years of frustration and failure we, at last, have a beautiful new lodge temple.

Now, more than ever, we must pull together and rededicate ourselves to our lodge and to the principles for which it stands. Forget past animosities and become a part of a new, vibrant Elks Lodge #1862.

Let there always be light and laughter and good fellowship in this new building.

May you always continue upward in your service and ideals and be successful as a lodge of this great order.

Sincerely,

Frank Hise

History of Hillsboro Elks Lodge

In 1951 a committee headed by R.H. "Red" Gardner, Past Exalted Ruler of Tillamook Lodge #1437, began the work of securing enough prospective members to institute an Elks Lodge in Hillsboro, Oregon. The original committee consisted of Red Gardner, Ron and George Baldwin, Avis Crosley, Frank Cox and Russ Hines. All of these men belonged to the Elks organization. Others who helped the committee were Bill Carver, Jack Swank and Frank "Pink" Friday. Many others put in time and money to get enough members to receive the go ahead from Past Grand Exalted Ruler Frank Lonergan, who was the sponsor of Oregon Lodges.

An Antlers Club was started at 136 E. Main Street in Hillsboro, in the American Legion Hall. Many meetings were held, advertisements and articles in the local paper caused enough men to sign up to permit the Past Grand Exalted Ruler to grant the application for a dispensation to form Hillsboro Lodge.

The organizing committee had meetings in Hillsboro, Forest Grove and Beaverton, but the lodge drew its members from other towns in the county as well as these.

On September 11, 1952, letters were mailed to the prospective members and to other Lodges announcing the date of the institution, September 27, 1952, at Shute Park Pavilion.

The lodge when organized had 380 members, and was the largest Elks Lodge instituted to that time. There were 1,861 lodges formed previously, so Hillsboro became BPOE No. 1862.

The first Exalted Ruler resigned and Art Scripture was elected and is recognized as the first Exalted Ruler of Hillsboro Lodge #1862.

After its institution the Lodge leased the American Legion Hall and used it for five years. Meanwhile, a building committee, a finance committee, and the brothers completed the building of a new Lodge at 922 S.W. Walnut.

This building was dedicated March 22, 1958, though the building was occupied in October of 1957.

In charge of dedication ceremonies were Past Grand Exalted Ruler, Judge Frank Lonergan of Portland and Frank Hise of Corvallis, who became grand exalted ruler of the order in 1970.

The cornerstone was laid by Past Grand Exalted Ruler Frank Lonergan. Among those assisting him were Albert M. Hodler, Clifton B. Mudd, Hal M. Randall, R.H. Gardner, Fred Simpson, E.N. Butler, William H. Warden, Edward

R. Dimbat, Sr., Robert W. Mulney, Estel Benner and Frank Hise. Among those on the dedication committee were Frank Blanchard, Russ Hines, Richard Heisler and Avis Crosley. The building committee were G.R. Clark, Bill Goetter, Frank Chatas, George Baldwin, Robert Fuiten, Darrell Hayden, Melvin Phelps, Ray Mathis, Frank Cox and R.H. Gardner.

The mortgage-burning ceremony was held 10 years after occupation of the building, in 1967.

The lodge has grown in strength from 380 members in 1952 to 1,400 today. Its participation in community service projects has increased and strengthened as its membership has grown.

There have been 35 Exalted Rulers, including Dale Smoole, the 1983-84 Exalted Ruler. R.H. Gardner was the first District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler in 1966. There are two other Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Rulers, Del Jansen in 1973 and Wes Foster in 1982.

In its 30 years the Hillsboro Lodge has helped more than 225,000 children in eye care, baseball, basketball, track, swimming, scholarships, hunter safety, drug abuse, and Girl, Boy and Sea Scouts programs.

Hillsboro Lodge has been an asset to the community because of its programs of charity, youth activities, student scholarships and many other projects to help unfortunate people. Two programs are especially looked forward to by the members, the Christmas baskets and the children's Christmas Theater party.

Hillsboro has helped in creation of other lodges in its area over the years. In 1957 Beaverton Lodge was organized, taking part of the Hillsboro Lodge area. Next was Sherwood Lodge, organized in 1966. Then in 1969 Forest Grove Lodge was formed, taking the western part of the county. These lodges along with Multnomah Lodge are helping Washington County to grow and prosper.

In 1969 the Hillsboro Lodge bought the Orenco Woods Golf Course. This public course is considered to be one of the best nine-hole links in the Northwest.

The Lodge also bought five acres of land adjoining the golf course on the south where our new temple is now located.

The temple we are dedicating is the first phase of our new growth.

We hope in the months to come your participation will help us to continue our building efforts.

Shirley Sorg
President

The Hillsboro Ladies of Elks was formally installed in April, 1960. The purpose of forming an organization is as follows: "The object of this organization shall be to render aid and give assistance, when invited, to the Lodge B.P.O.E. No. 1862 in its civic and welfare movement and to take an interest in matters pertaining to the welfare of our members."

In fulfilling this object during the past twenty-three years, the Ladies of Elks have supported the charitable projects of the B.P.O.E. at both the local and state levels. They have assisted the B.P.O.E. in their social and recreational events and have provided many needed items for the Lodge.

For their own members the Ladies of Elks schedule educational and stimulating activities and encourage participation in the work of the entire Elks organization.

CONGRATULATIONS to the many brothers of Hillsteez Lodge #1862 who have finally reached the fruition of their plans. I was pleased and very happy to have been an approving member of the Buildings Applications Unit on the Board of Grand Trustees at the beginning of this fine program.

I certainly commend your Trustees and other officers for their endeavors. Especially, my commendation to the Building Committee for their many donated hours, often thankless, spent with contractors, architects and commissioners to get the culmination of several years of planning.

Now as Chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees and at the dedication of this beautiful structure, I would like to extend the Board's and my wishes for your continued success and happiness in the years to come.

We, of the Grand Lodge Trustees, salute the brothers of Hillsteez Lodge #1862.

Remember when?

Those of us who can remember Hillsboro in 1952 will recall, fondly, the railroad station on Washington between Third and Fourth with those daily trains through the down town slowly making their way to Forest Grove and beyond, with loads of merchandise and produce from the fertile Tualatin Valley.

We didn't have a one-way street system or so many traffic lights, and getting from one side of town to the other was much easier than today.

Radios didn't play rock music and very few people in town owned a television set, and an evening's entertainment was usually a walk around town, or visiting with neighbors and friends.

The old courthouse stood surrounded by a lot more shrubs and trees than it does today and the old jailhouse for the wrongdoers has gone by the way of the wrecking crew.

The smell of Mrs. Heisler's jail cooking made your mouth water as you went to the courthouse to carry on your business. Most all of the business was conducted downtown, as shopping centers weren't real popular yet.

Hillsboro High School was located at Sixth and Lincoln and carried on its rivalry with Beaverton and Forest Grove, as the farmers still were working the ground where Sunset and Aloha High Schools now sit.

The TV Highway was mostly one lane from Beaverton to Hillsboro, and Bob's Market was located right beside the highway, just outside town in Witch Hazel.

The old blue bus traveled down the highway to Portland through the communities of Reedville, Tobias, Huber and West Slope, past the farms, filbert orchards and dairies that lined the highway in 1952, and no one could travel on a thing called a freeway or ride on a jet plane, both part of our future.

Such were the times when a small group of men from the Hillsboro area decided to follow the virtues set forth by Charles A.S. Vivian, who became the founder of the Order of Elks in 1868, and formed Hillsboro Lodge, which became the 1,862d lodge in the United States.

Those established virtues of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity continue to guide its members, who cherish good fellowship today as much as those Elks did more than a century ago.

Gone are the railroad station and its daily trains; gone are the blue buses, replaced by giant monsters that bend in the middle.

Hillsboro High School moved outside town and the town moved around it, and later when it became too large, split the town with the addition of Glencoe High.

The TV Highway now is a giant four-lane speedway, dotted with its many red and green eyes, transporting thousands of people daily about their toil.

Those communities that once lined the valley have swelled into one big metropolitan maze and most of those farms have all but disappeared.

Hillsboro Lodge thrives today, strong and healthy at 21865 NW Quatama Road. It continues today, as it did 30 years ago, conducting its business, providing a necessary influence on our youth, and helping the needy, handicapped and less fortunate.

Though many of those original Elks have gone on to other tasks or their final rest, the spirit they began those 30 years ago still thrives in our community, spreading its message of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity.
